

Sale Name: PERSONAL PROPERTY: 1116 Spur Rd, Decherd, TN

LOT 34 - Ben Hampton - Nancy Ward Cherokee Nation - Signed - Montage Released July 1976- Nancy Ward, "Wild Rose of the Cherokee," was a friend of the pioneer who served as a peacemaker between the settlers and the Indians. With her trade beads, red tail hawk headdress and Cherokee pottery, she is the focal point of Ben Hampton's first montage. Completing the petroglyph, or Indian sign, are Fort Marr, a covered wagon, a Cherokee Council meeting and the tavern on the banks of the Ocoee where Nancy Ward spent her last years. A monument marks her burial site in Polk county near Benton, Tennessee.
